EXECUTIVES

DAVID MONTGOMERY

General Partner, President and Chief Executive Officer

As a young fan attending Phillies games at Connie Mack Stadium, David P. Montgomery developed a passion for baseball. As General Partner, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Phillies, that passion hasn't changed. In fact, he rarely misses recording a single play in his personal scorebook during every home game.

Montgomery's experience as a fan in the stands at Connie Mack Stadium became his responsibility when he began working in the Phillies' Sales Department on February 25, 1971, six-plus weeks before the opening of Veterans Stadium. His front office career started with the sale of season and group tickets.

He advanced to positions as Marketing Director and then Director of Sales before becoming Executive Vice President when the current ownership group purchased the team after the 1981 season. Montgomery will always remember his first home opener as the new Executive Vice President in 1982. He arrived at the Vet 12 hours before the 7:35 p.m. game against the New York Mets on April 6 only to announce the game was being postponed because of snow.

Montgomery was elevated to Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer 10 years later and succeeded Bill Giles as President and CEO of the Phillies on June 20, 1997. The groundwork for this eventual appointment took place in November 1994 when he was designated as a Co-General Partner, which included a segment of ownership.

Under Montgomery, the Phillies focused on building a strong team on the field by investing heavily in improving scouting and player development. Led by General Manager Ed Wade and Mike Arbuckle in the Scouting and Player Development department, the Phillies minor league system has developed into one of the best in the major leagues.

EXECUTIVES

Building a new ballpark for Phillies fans, a long-held dream of Giles, is also on Montgomery's agenda. He saw the grass and dirt field of Connie Mack Stadium as a fan and will oversee the Phillies' return to playing on grass when the New Phillies Ballpark opens in April, 2004.

During his 31 years in the game, Montgomery has been active in a wide range of capacities for Major League Baseball. He has been a member of MLB's Labor Policy and Strategic Planning Committees. Montgomery is the Chairman of the Board of Directors of Major League Baseball Enterprises (formerly Major League Baseball Properties) and continues to work on the MLB Schedule Committee as well.

Locally, Montgomery currently serves as a trustee of the University of Pennsylvania. He also serves on the Board of Overseers of the Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts and on the policy board of WXPN Radio at the University of Pennsylvania. In addition to his Penn activities, Montgomery is also on the boards of Need in Deed, a Philadelphia community service organization, and the Philadelphia Sports Congress. He is a past Board Chairman of both the Schuylkill Center for Environmental Education and the Woodlynde School, a private K-12 school in Strafford, PA.

Montgomery was co-chair of the Police Athletic League's annual banquet in 2001 and this year's annual Celebrity Pool Tournament hosted by Mike Lieberthal, Doug Glanville and Randy Wolf, an event that benefits the Philadelphia Futures program. He and his wife were honored at the Woodlynde School's annual gala in February 2002 for their work on behalf of the school.

Montgomery was born June 26, 1946, and grew up in the Roxborough section of Philadelphia. He is a graduate of William Penn Charter School (1964) and the University of Pennsylvania (1968) where he majored in history. He received his MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania in the fall of 1970.

David and his wife, Lyn, make their home in the Wyndmoor section of Philadelphia. They have three children - Harry, Sam and Susa.

BILL GILES
Chairman

Baseball has been Bill Giles' life. His father, the late Warren C. Giles, was President and General Manager of the Cincinnati Reds (1946-51) and President of the National League (1951-69). Bill's mother died when he was nine so he spent long hours and a lot of days with his father at Crosley Field in Cincinnati. Bill's first job in baseball came when he was "around 14" years of age. It wasn't a glamorous position, as he did all kinds of odds and ends in the Cincinnati Reds' Public Relations Department.

Bill Giles has held numerous positions with two National League teams, Houston and Philadelphia. He's served on numerous committees in baseball and has been one of Philadelphia's most visible community activists. Currently Chairman of the Phillies, Bill was appointed Honorary National League President early in the 2001 season, the first father-son combination at that level in baseball history. Bill represents the NL at the All-Star Game and post-season play. The appointment by Commissioner Bud Selig is a testimony of Bill's stature in the game.

Following graduation at Denison University, Giles spent three years in the U.S. Air Force as a navigator in the Strategic Air Command.

His baseball career took on a full-time status in 1959 when he was named GM of the Nashville Vols, a Cincinnati minor league team. From there, he moved to the expansion Houston Colt 45s. While in Houston, Giles served as Traveling Secretary, Publicity Director, Director of Public Relations and Promotions and Vice President. With the opening of Veterans Stadium approaching, the Carpenter family brought Giles to Philadelphia to run the business end of the operation.

Giles began his Phillies career as Vice President, Business Operations, following the 1969 season. Three years later he was promoted to Executive Vice President.

When the Carpenters put the team up for sale in the spring of 1981, Giles organized a group that purchased the team on October 29, 1981. He remained President of the club until June 20, 1997, when he moved up to Chairman. In the summer of 2001, Giles was nominated to serve as Honorary President of the National League.

Giles is among Philadelphia's more civically involved citizens: Chairman Emeritus of the Board, Philadelphia Convention and Tourism Bureau; member of the Executive Committee, Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and Philadelphia Sports Congress; past President of the Boy Scouts of America; on the board of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce, Greater Philadelphia First and the Police Athletic League; and a member of the Union League and Rotary Club.

Giles has been honored many, many times for his contributions to the city. Among the awards: Distinguished Citizen of the Year by the Boy Scouts of America; Garry Maddox Award by the Philadelphia Child Guidance Center; Police Athletic League Man of the Year (1993), Philadelphia Boys Choir Man of the Year (1994); Anti-Defamation League Man of the Year (1994); American Red Cross Man of the Year (1996), Vision of Philadelphia Award (1996) by Philadelphia Hospitality, Inc., and the American Heart Association's Man of the Year.

Giles, who was born in Rochester, NY, on September 7, 1934, resides in Villanova, PA, with his wife, Nancy. They are the parents of three sons, Michael, Joseph and Christopher. Joe and his wife, Paula, have three daughters, Caroline, Dana and Molly. Chris and his wife, Amy, have two children, Eliza and Warren.

RULES OF INTEREST

DOCTORED BAT: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be called out and ejected from the game and is subject to additional penalties. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5 p.m. and is delayed for any reason it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5:01 p.m. it will be considered a night game. Twi-night double headers shall be considered two night games.

PINCH HITTERS: A player shall be considered a pinch hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up.

ROSTER LIMITS: 40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40 (maximum).

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game. A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed to be an official game (4 1/2 or 5 innings). A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins. Rule 4.11 (d) . . . A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play; EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a suspended game in each of the following situations: (1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored. (2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs at the same site.

Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

WAIVER AND DRAFT PRICES: The waiver price is $20,000 and the Major League Draft price is $50,000.

YEARS OF SERVICE: 172 days constitute a full major league year of service.

RAIN RULES

A game is in the hands of the home team up until the game starts, unless the game is in the final series of the season between the two teams. Once a game has started, the Umpire-in-Chief assumes the right to determine whether the game shall be stopped because of bad weather or unfit playing conditions.

When a game is temporarily suspended because of rain, umpires must wait 1 hour and 15 minutes before calling the game. Should there be a second suspension, umpires shall wait at least 45 minutes before calling a game. For a third and any subsequent rain delays umpires are to wait at least 30 minutes.

QUALIFYING MARKS

BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances. However, if there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of official at-bats, then that player shall be awarded the championship.

PITCHING CHAMPIONSHIP: Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

ROOKIE: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit.

SAVE: Credit a pitcher with a save when: (1) He is finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; (2) He is not the winning pitcher, and (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions: (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or (b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings. No more than one save may be credited in each game.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAK: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

HOW TO FIGURE

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide at-bats into hits.

ERA: Multiply earned runs by nine and divide the total by innings pitched.

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide total bases by the total times at bat (not including walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher or interference).

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Divide the on-base total (hits, walks, hit by pitcher, and interference) by total plate appearances (at-bats, walks, hit by pitcher and sacrifice flies).

FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games played.

MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

WAIVERS

WAIVERS - Major League waivers must be secured for all Major League trades from August 1st until the day after the regular season concludes.

NO WAIVERS are required to trade a Major League player at any other time.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Philadelphia, a city rich in history and tradition, has played an integral part in professional baseball's history.

While the Cincinnati Red Stockings of 1869 are recognized as the first all-salaried team, Philadelphia's earliest team, the Athletics, followed soon after in 1870. The next year, the National Association was formed and the Athletics were a part of that league.

When the Association disbanded in 1876, several of the stronger teams formed the National League, as it is still known today. The charter members were the Boston Red Caps, Chicago White Stockings, Cincinnati Red Stockings, St. Louis Brown Stockings, Hartford Dark Blues, New York Mutuals, Louisville Grays and the Philadelphia Athletics.

The very first National League game was played in Philadelphia on April 22, 1876, at 25th and Jefferson Streets. Boston won, 6-5 before an estimated crowd of 3,000.

Resting in seventh place with a 14-45 record, the Athletics couldn't make their final western trip because of insufficient funds. The team was immediately expelled from the league.

Philadelphia was without a National League franchise until a similar fate hit the Worcester (MA) Brown Stockings six years later.

Worcester faced financial difficulties and was about to fold when Alfred Reach, a Philadelphia sporting goods founder, bought the Brown Stockings and moved them to Philadelphia.

Reach named the team the Phillies, a take-off on the team's geographic roots, "Philly." Phillies is the longest-running name for any team in the National League.

Al Reach

Lose First Game

History shows the Phillies played their first game on May 1, 1883, losing to the Providence Grays, 4-3, at Recreation Park, 24th and Columbia Avenues. The crowd was estimated at 1,200.

It was the start of a tradition in which 1,725 players have put on a Phillies uniform and over 99 million spectators have attended games since the turn of the century when attendance figures were first recorded.

In 1887, the Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which later became known as Baker Bowl (capacity 15,000). An estimated 20,000 fans jammed the park for the first game on April 30, a 19-10 win over the New York Giants.

The Phillies had to share the Philadelphia baseball scene when the American League was formed in 1901. One of the eight teams was the Athletics under manager Connie Mack.

The Athletics enjoyed more success than the Phillies and thus were more popular. The A's won six pennants in their first 15 years while the Phillies could muster just one.

That first championship came in 1915 when Pat Moran, a former catcher with the Phillies, led them to the pennant in his first year as manager. Grover Cleveland Alexander, a 31-game winner, won the first World Series game against the Boston Red Sox, who then swept the next four games.

While the A's had a strong run in the 1930s (three pennants, including two straight World Championships in 1929-30), the Phillies floundered. Outfielder Chuck Klein led an awesome attack but an awful pitching staff kept the Phillies from winning.

Baker Bowl began to deteriorate physically when some wooden bleachers gave way in 1927 forcing the Phillies to play a few games at Shibe Park (home of the A's). Finally, after 51 years at their stadium, the Phillies moved permanently to Shibe Park, July 4, 1938, splitting a doubleheader with Boston, a 10-5 loss and a 10-2 win.

Ownership of the Phillies seemed to change constantly, while the A's remained stable under the Shibe family. From 1903 to 1943, the Phillies had ten different owners.

Pat Moran

Carpenter Era Begins

Perhaps the most significant move in Phillies history came when the Carpenter family, of duPont wealth in Wilmington (DE), bought the team on November 23, 1943, for an estimated $400,000.

In an effort to stimulate more interest in the club, Bob Carpenter Jr., the new president, announced a contest was being held to find a nickname for the Phillies. The name Blue Jays was chosen from among 623 suggestions.

Although it still maintained the official Phillies title, the club was known as Blue Jays for the 1944 and 1945 seasons. The new name was used heavily during that time, but then usage began to drop off in the following years. The Blue Jays name never appeared in the newspapers after 1947.

When Carpenter took over as president, he began to pour money into building a minor league system.

The efforts paid off rather quickly when a young team, nicknamed the Whiz Kids, won the 1950 pennant. Dick Sisler hit a dramatic three-run homer in the 10th inning at Ebbets Field to sink the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1, on the last day of the season. Robin Roberts won 20 games that season, the first of six straight 20-win seasons. Richie Ashburn, the center fielder, started a streak of hitting over .300 for seven straight years, including two batting titles. Unfortunately, a world title eluded the Phillies as they were swept by the New York Yankees in four straight games.

Eddie Sawyer's young club was expected to be a force for a few years but a third-place tie in 1953 was the best they could do.

The A's, meanwhile, began to slide. After finishing last in 1954, their 11th eighth-place finish in 23 seasons, the A's were sold and moved to Kansas City. Once again, Philadelphia was a one-team baseball town.

Shibe Park was renamed Connie Mack Stadium in honor of the A's owner/manager in 1953. But it's worth noting that as early as 1953, a new stadium in Philadelphia was envisioned by Mayor Richardson Dilworth. Fourteen years and many disagreements later, ground was broken for Veterans Stadium, which finally opened with the Phillies hosting the Montreal Expos on April 10, 1971. In 1995, 25 years later, the Phillies celebrated the Silver Season of the Vet with a special logo and events throughout the year.

Under the leadership of Ruly Carpenter, who replaced his dad as President in 1972, and General Manager Paul Owens, the Phillies dominated the National League East in the mid-1970s. They won three consecutive division titles starting in 1976 but couldn't get over the hump until 1980, a year after they had signed free agent Pete Rose.

Paul Owens, Dallas Green and Ruly Carpenter accept the 1980 World Series Trophy.

Under manager Dallas Green, the Phillies made it to the World Series that year by defeating the Houston Astros in a gut-wrenching National League Championship Series. Sisler's historic homer in 1950 was replaced as the greatest moment in Phillies history at precisely 11:29 p.m. on Tuesday, October 21, 1980, when Tug McGraw struck out Kansas City's Willie Wilson to give the franchise its first World Championship.

The powerful Phillies teams of that era were anchored by two Hall of Famers, Steve Carlton, the first pitcher to win four Cy Young Awards, and third baseman Mike Schmidt, a three-time MVP.

Carpenter Family Sells

The end of a different era occurred after the 1981 season. Citing escalating player salaries, the Carpenter family put the Phillies up for sale. Bill Giles, Executive Vice President under Ruly Carpenter, and five other partners purchased the team for $30 million.

In just the second year of this new ownership group, the Phillies won their fifth Eastern Division title in eight years. Adding two veterans, Tony Perez and Joe Morgan, to an experienced team created the nickname, Wheeze Kids.

Owens, who went from the front office to manage the team in July, guided the Phillies to the World Series for the fourth time by eliminating the Los Angeles Dodgers in the NLCS. The Baltimore Orioles, however, won the World Series, 4-1.

From generation to generation, fans' heroes change. Players such as Alexander, Klein, Roberts, Ashburn, Carlton and Schmidt will always be remembered but there were new heroes on the scene from the 1993 team. That club went from a last-place finish the previous year to the division title, leading the NL East for all but one day of the season. Lenny Dykstra was second in the MVP race; Terry Mulholland, John Kruk, Darren Daulton and Dave Hollins were All-Stars but this was a total team effort. All 25 players emerged as heroes.

This team didn't have one nickname such as the Whiz Kids or Wheeze Kids. They had many names because they were a group of athletes who became Phillies through shrewd moves by General Manager Lee Thomas.

As underdogs, the Phillies dumped the favored Atlanta Braves, 4-2, to make their third World Series appearance in the last 13 years. Their spring training neighbors, the Toronto Blue Jays, were the opponents. Jim Fregosi joined Moran, Sawyer, Green and Owens as managers who led the Phillies to an NL pennant and a trip to the Fall Classic.

A very entertaining World Series abruptly ended with Joe Carter's three-run homer, which gave the Blue Jays their second consecutive World Championship.

Phillies baseball is more than wins and losses. It involves people.

People who were Hall of Famers during the early years of the franchise ... Harry Wright, Ed Delahanty and Sam Thompson.

People who were MVP winners ... Klein, Jim Konstanty and Schmidt.

People who won Cy Young Awards, starting with Carlton's four and followed by John Denny and Steve Bedrosian.

People who were Rookie of the Year winners ... Jack Sanford, Dick Allen and Scott Rolen.

People who reached fans, first on the airwaves, and later on television ... Gene Kelly, By Saam, Ashburn, Bill Campbell, Harry Kalas, Andy Musser and Chris Wheeler.

Oh yes. There's one more important figure in Phillies history ... Phillie Phanatic, the big green furry creature who made its debut as the team's mascot on April 25, 1978. As with the 119-year-old baseball team, the Phanatic, too, is a tradition.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

Commitment to the community has been a focal point of the Phillies for many years. Off the field, the Phillies have become a team to count on through their efforts of reaching out to communities and those less fortunate.

Phillies Charities, Inc. serves as the fundraising arm of the Phillies organization and covers the wide variety of the team's charity involvement. Since 1984, the Phillies have raised over $5.6 million for the fight against ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease), the team's official charity. Furthermore, funds and thousands of charitable donations have been given to a variety of local non-profit organizations.

Among the groups benefiting from the Phillies are the American Red Cross, Boy Scouts of America, CADE, the Junior Baseball Federation, PAL, the United Negro College Fund, the Jackie Robinson Foundation, the Boys & Girls Clubs and Philadelphia Futures.

AT BAT IN OUR COMMUNITY

The Phillies are proud of their rich history of player and staff involvement over the years. During the 2001 season, Bobby Abreu, Larry Bowa, Doug Glanville, Brian Hunter, Mike Lieberthal, Jose Mesa and Scott Rolen were among the Phillies who donated time and money to a variety of charities.

Not to be overlooked are the players' wives, who also volunteer their time visiting patients at the ALS Clinic and raising money at fundraising events at Veterans Stadium. The wives also donate and distribute school supplies to families at the People's Emergency Center.

Phillies front office employees also give of their time, money and efforts in several ways ... contributing canned goods for the annual Boy Scouts Food Drive, donating used winter coats to the needy, helping to cook and serve Christmas dinner for the homeless, plus many other events.

The Phillies Speakers Bureau is composed of active and former players, coaches, broadcasters and management, appearing throughout the tri-state area. Dickie Noles is a key member of the bureau. He speaks to parents and youth groups about education, alcohol and substance abuse through his S.A.V.E.S. program.

Education and literacy are very important elements of our role in the community. The Phillies offer many programs including "Breaking Barriers," the Philadelphia Free Library Reading Program, the Philadelphia School District reading program, the Multiple Sclerosis READaTHON and "Visit the Vet", which offers school children a free, behind-the-scenes tour of the Vet. In 2001, the Phillies began Phillies Phundamentals, an inner-city, after-school program using baseball concepts to make learning fun for children.

The Phillies are also committed to developing and teaching youth in the Philadelphia area the game of baseball. Rookie and RBI Leagues are designed not only to encourage inner-city children (from ages 6-18) to play baseball, but also to teach them the value of teamwork and sportsmanship. Combined, the programs involve more than 7,500 boys and girls yearly. In addition, the Phillies also initiated and host three local tournaments for baseball players: the Carpenter Cup is a tournament designed to give exposure to the top tri-state area high school baseball players while the Liberty Bell Classic is an annual Division I college tournament. The Giles Cup, new in 2001, is another college tournament for Division II schools.

Millions, young and old, have benefited from the Phillies' numerous, far-reaching programs.

Doug Glanville was awarded the first annual Phillies Community Service Award for his outstanding contributions to the community. During his tenure as a Phillie, Doug has served as Chairman of "Phillies Phundamentals", an after-school program, and has donated time and money to the American Diabetes Association, UNICEF and Easter Seals. Garry Maddox made the presentation.

THE PHANATIC

HT: 6 feet; WT: 300 pounds, mostly fat

AGE: Made debut on April 25, 1978

BIRTHPLACE: Galapagos Islands

EYES: White eyeballs, black pupils, purple eyelashes and blue eyebrows

SKIN: Bright green fur

PHYSICAL DEFECTS: Overweight, clumsy feet, extra-long beak, curled-up red tongue, gawking neck, slight case of body odor.

The Phanatic was created out of one of the weekly staff meetings of the Phillies marketing department after the 1977 season. It was named after the fanatical Phillies fans.

The original person in the costume was David Raymond, a graduate of Newark (DE) High School and the University of Delaware (1979), BA degree in physical education. In his 17 years, Raymond missed just eight games.

Tom Burgoyne, the current Phanatic, actually began his fanatical career as Raymond's back-up in 1989 and then joined the Phillies promotional staff in 1990. He has made world-wide appearances with Major League Baseball International, including Japan (1997 and 1998) and Australia (1997 and 1999). The 36-year-old is a graduate of St. Joseph's Preparatory School and Drexel University (1988), where he earned a BS degree in Marketing. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Andrew and Daniel.

#42 JACKIE ROBINSON 2B-1B-3B-OF

Commissioner Bud Selig announced that all teams would retire this number in 1997 during the 50th anniversary of Robinson becoming the first African American to play in Major League Baseball . . . Robinson made his debut that season with the Brooklyn Dodgers, who retired his number following his 1972 death . . . In 1987, the National League Rookie of the Year Award was renamed after Robinson . . . Pitching coach Galen Cisco was the last Phillie to wear the number. (1997 rule was grandfathered, meaning a player who had worn the number could retain it until that player retired. Mike Jackson, who wore #42, was signed as a free agent by the Phillies for the 2000 season but he did not pitch in a game that year.)

Ford C. Frick Award

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the late broadcaster and National League President, has been presented annually since 1978. Each award recipient is presented with a certificate during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame. 2001 TEAM NOTES

THIS GAME'S EASY, HARRY: For the first time since the National League pennant-winning season of 1993, the Phillies finished the season above .500, with an 86-76 (.531) record. The team's 21-game improvement over 2000 was tied with Houston for the 3rd-best turnaround in the majors behind only Seattle (25) and the Chicago Cubs (23).

MEN OF STEAL: After finishing sixth in the NL with 102 stolen bases in 2000, the Phillies came out of the gates with their running shoes on this season and finished with the most steals in the NL (153) for the first time since 1886. All-Star shortstop Jimmy Rollins led the way with his league-leading 46 steals (tied with Juan Pierre) and became the first Phillie to lead the league since Hall of Famer Richie Ashburn in 1948, while Bobby Abreu set a Phillies record for steals by a right fielder with 36, breaking Elmer Flick's 101-year-old record of 35. With a combined 110 steals, Rollins, Abreu and Doug Glanville (28) became the first Phillies trio since 1986 to steal 20 or more bases each. From May 23 to June 13, the team stole 26 consecutive bases without being caught.

NATIONAL LEAGUE PLAYERS OF THE WEEK: For the first time since 1992, the Phillies had three NL Players of the Week. Bobby Abreu, Scott Rolen and Jose Mesa all took home the honor for the first time in their respective careers. From May 28-June 3, Abreu hit .522 (12-23) with 13 runs, three doubles, three home runs, 10 RBI, eight walks and four stolen bases. Rolen hit .545 (12-22) from August 6-12 with eight runs, three doubles, one triple, four home runs and seven RBI. Mesa won for his week from September 17-23, when he went 2-0 with two saves and a 0.00 ERA. In 1992, Dave Hollins, John Kruk and Tommy Greene were the club's three winners.

JOSE, CAN YOU SAVE?: With his 42 saves, Jose Mesa became just the third Phillie ever to save 40 or more games in a season. Mesa, whose total was 2nd-highest in Phillies history, joined Mitch Williams, who saved 43 in 1993, and Steve Bedrosian, who saved 40 in his Cy Young Award year of 1987. During the season, Mesa was honored as the Rolaids Relief Pitcher of the Month for May with 10 saves and a 3.29 ERA and finished 4th among NL relievers in Rolaids yearly balloting with 118 points. In addition, he earned a save in 21 consecutive chances, which was one shy of the Phillies franchise record of 22 straight, done by Al Holland during the 1983-84 seasons.

TAKING THE LEED: Travis Lee hit some of the most important home runs of the Phillies season, including ...

— April 21 vs Atlanta: Lee's 1st home run of the season was the first earned run scored against Greg Maddux in 2001. Phils won 4-1.

— May 25 vs Montreal: Trailing 8-6 in the bottom of the 9th, Lee hit a 3-run homer on an 0-2 pitch from Ugueth Urbina for a walk-off win at the Vet.

— July 6 at Baltimore: Tied at 2 in the top of the 10th, Lee hit a solo shot off Mike Trombley to give the Phils the lead and eventual win.

— July 8 at Baltimore: Trailing 4-2 in the top of the 9th, Lee hit a 2-out, 3-run blast off left-hander Buddy Groom to give the Phils a 5-4 lead and eventual win.

— August 11 vs Los Angeles: A 1st-inning grand slam by Lee off starter Eric Gagne was all the Phils needed to beat the Dodgers, 7-3.

— September 23 vs Florida: Trailing 4-3 in the bottom of the 9th, Lee hit a 2-out solo homer, his 2nd of the day, off Antonio Alfonseca to tie the game. Phils won in 10 innings.

INTERLEAGUE PLAY: The Phillies went 7-11 vs. American League teams this season, bringing their all-time record to 39-46 (.459).

30/30 VISION: Bobby Abreu became the first Phillie in franchise history to reach the 30/30 mark of 30 home runs and 30 stolen bases, setting career highs in both categories. Both milestones came on the road - he stole his 30th base on August 14 at Milwaukee and hit his 30th home run as part of a two-homer game, September 30 at Florida. Abreu became just the second player in the major leagues this season (and 25th in MLB history) to accomplish the feat, joining Montreal's Vladimir Guerrero, who, coincidentally, also became the first Expo in history to do it and did it at Veterans Stadium.

CAN'T GET ENOUGH OF YOUR GLOVE, BABE: The Phillies' 96 errors were the fewest committed in franchise history and the team finished second in the National League with a club record-low .985 fielding percentage (Arizona was first at .986). The Phils also set a franchise record with the most errorless games in a season (93) for the second consecutive year (92 in 2000). Individually, shortstop Jimmy Rollins (.979), first baseman Travis Lee (.996) and third baseman Scott Rolen (.973) each finished with the 3rd-best fielding percentage at their respective positions. Left fielder Pat Burrell led the NL with 18 outfield assists and tied Toronto's Raul Mondesi for the major league lead.

DE-PEN-DABLE: After finishing the 2000 season with an NL-worst 5.72 ERA and a league-high 37 losses, the Phillies bullpen turned things around in 2001. Their 3.88 ERA was tied for 4th-best in the league and 28 wins tied for the 2nd-most, trailing only Houston's 29. They also surrendered the fewest home runs (45) and finished with 47 saves, tied with San Francisco for the 2nd-highest total in the league. Additionally, Rolaids Relief Man Standings rated the Phillies bullpen the best in the NL for April and May when they got off to a 16-5 start through the first two months of the season.

FOUR HORSEMEN: Bobby Abreu (110), Scott Rolen (107), Travis Lee (90) and Pat Burrell (89) combined for the most RBI by a Phillies foursome since 1932. Their total of 396 was the most since the combination of Don Hurst (143), Chuck Klein (137), Pinky Whitney (124) and Hal Lee (85) finished with 489. The 2001 contingent was also one RBI short of becoming the first four Phillies to reach 90 or more RBI in one season since 1929.

MERRY MONTH OF MAY: In May, the Phillies posted their best monthly mark of the season with 20 wins. The team's .714 winning percentage was 3rd-best in club history in the month of May (22-5, .815, in 1976; 21-7, .750, in 1995) and their 20-8 record was the best in any month since going 21-7 in May, 1995. They won eight of the nine series they played, including sweeps of the Pirates at home and the Mets at Shea Stadium. Randy Wolf finished the month with five quality starts and was 3-0 with a team-best 1.53 ERA and 45 strikeouts in 35 1/3 innings. Offensively in the 28 games, Pat Burrell had the best average (.341), Scott Rolen the most hits (35), Doug Glanville the most home runs (7) and Travis Lee the most RBI (18).

ATTENDANCE NOTES: The Phillies finished the season with an attendance figure of 1,782,054 for 78 dates, compared to 1,612,769 for 80 dates a year ago. Attendance increased over the 2000 season by 169,285 with two fewer playing dates. The season's average of 22,846 was the largest since 1996 (23,098). The final game of the season, September 27 vs Cincinnati, drew a walk-up crowd of 16,119, which was the largest walk-up total since August 5, 1982, when the team had 22,511 walk-up fans for a Businessperson's Special vs. Montreal. The final game's total attendance of 38,602 was the largest September crowd since September 1, 1997 when 50,069 watched the Phils host the Yankees.

J-ROLL CALL: Rookie shortstop Jimmy Rollins ...

— Set a Phillies record for stolen bases by a shortstop. His 46 steals broke Larry Bowa's 1974 record of 39.

— Became the first major leaguer to the lead the NL in stolen bases and triples since Lou Brock in 1968.

— Set a Phillies record with 35 consecutive stolen bases, which broke Bowa's record of 20 straight set in 1974. He was not thrown out by a catcher in his major league career until August 26 when Arizona's Damian Miller threw him out trying to steal second base.

— Had the most stolen bases by a Phillie since 1987 when outfielder Milt Thompson also stole 46.

— Was the first Phillies rookie to be selected to the All-Star team since RHP Tyler Green in 1995 and first rookie position player since 2B Juan Samuel in 1984.

REELING THEM IN: Against the Marlins this season, the Phillies posted a record of 14-5, their most wins in a season vs. one team since 1991, when the club went 14-4 against Montreal. At the Vet, the Phils were 9-1 against Florida, winning their first eight, including a five-game sweep, the club's first five-game sweep since June 25-27, 1982 vs. the Mets. Eleven of the 19 games were decided by just one run, with the Phillies winning nine. In the 19 head-to-head match-ups, the Phillies hit .281 with 22 home runs. Eight of the Phils' 14 wins belonged to the bullpen.

2001 MINOR LEAGUE NOTES

A WINNING TRADITION
The Phillies' six affiliates combined for a 351-346 (.504) record, the organization's fifth consecutive winning season, the longest streak since eight in a row, 1966-73. Starting with the 1991 season, the Phillies minor leagues have had combined winning records in eight of the 11 seasons.

POST-SEASON PAIR
Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre and double-A Reading both made appearances in the post-season. Reading was declared Co-Champions of the Eastern League with New Britain after the final round of playoffs were called off due to the tragic attacks on the United States, September 11. During the four games Reading played, however, not one pitcher allowed more than two earned runs as the team posted a 1.29 ERA. Scranton, making their third straight post-season appearance, advanced to the final round of the Governor's Cup Championship, but lost after playing just one game against Louisville, a 2-1 loss. The remaining games were also cancelled after September 11.

RICH IN PITCHIN'
Scranton's pitching staff led the International League with a 3.19 ERA and finished second in strikeouts with 1,095, only five behind Rochester's 1,100. It was the team's second year leading the league in ERA. Individually, Brandon Duckworth led the IL with a 2.63 ERA and tied for the league lead with 13 wins, while Rigo Beltran finished second in the league with a 2.96 ERA. Seven Red Barons pitchers finished the season with a sub-3.00 ERA: Beltran, Jason Boyd (1.97), Duckworth, Nelson Figueroa (2.47), Doug Nickle (1.68), Vicente Padilla (2.42) and Pete Zamora (2.93). Additionally, the rookie Gulf Coast League Phillies tied for the second-best team ERA (2.77) in the league.

NEW KID ON THE BLOCK
In its inaugural season, the Phillies' newest affiliate, the single-A Lakewood BlueClaws, finished with the highest attendance in the South Atlantic League (482,206). Lakewood was one of only two SAL teams in the 16-team league to finish with over 400,000 fans and average over 6,000. Their average attendance of 6,889 was also the highest in the league. The team's final home game of the regular season drew 8,414; the next highest in the SAL that day was Delmarva with 3,107.

CATCHING ON
The Phillies finished second in the National League in fielding and committed the fewest errors in franchise history. However, excellent defense was not exclusive to just the major league team. Scranton/Wilkes-Barre led the IL with a .982 fielding percentage and 3,901 putouts and committed the fewest errors in the league (100). Among players with at least 100 games, third baseman Kevin Orie finished second at his position with a .965 fielding percentage and shortstop Nick Punto finished third at .964, while also leading all IL position players with 398 assists. Reading had the third-best fielding percentage in the EL (.974) and also committed the third-fewest errors in the league (139). The R-Phils defense was highlighted by center fielder Marlon Byrd, who led all EL outfielders with a .994 percentage. Clearwater's .973 fielding percentage was the best in the Florida State League.

ALL-STAR ACHIEVEMENT
The Scranton/Wilkes-Barre Red Barons set a team record when they had five players selected to the Triple-A All-Star Game in Indianapolis. Right-hander Brandon Duckworth was the starting pitcher for the International League. Duckworth pitched the first two innings and allowed one unearned run while striking out an All-Star-record five batters (the record was tied later in the game). Third baseman Kevin Orie (0-2) and second baseman P.J. Forbes (0-2) were starters at their respective positions. Right-hander Nelson Figueroa and outfielder Eric Valent were also selected, but were with the Phillies at the time.

MANAGERIAL MERRY-GO-ROUND
Scranton/Wilkes-Barre used seven different managers in 2001 en route to the playoffs. When Phillies third base coach John Vukovich was diagnosed with a brain tumor in early May, SWB's manager Marc Bombard was called up to fill in. During Bombard's absence, SWB coach Jerry Martin (20-18), minor league hitting coordinator Don Long (9-11), field coordinator Bill Dancy (1-2), outfield/baserunning instructor Milt Thompson (1-0), infield coordinator Ruben Amaro Sr. (1-0) and catching coordinator Mick Billmeyer (1-0) all managed at least one game. Bombard (45-33) resumed his managing duties July 14 through the end of the season.
